Author's Second Claim to Fame.
Victor Hugo was a good business man. One of his biographers describes him as "the keenest hand imaginable at a bargain, a past master in the art of drawing up contracts and the only author on record who made a fortune out of his books while his publishers lost on them."

SEVERAL MORE FROSTS.

There has been several quite heavy frosts in this vicinity during the past week. The general opinion is, however, that they have not increased to any great extent the damage done to fruit by the early freeze. The fruit crop will of course be much lighter than last year, but growers as a rule are "keeping a stiff upper lip," and hoping for the best.

The Judge's Joke.
Sheriff Guy is responsible for a Court of Session story. Once when the present Lord Justice Clerk was conducting a jury trial he made a small jest. The audience thought it their duty to laugh. "Silence!" shouted the mace in measured tones, "there's nothing to laugh at!"—Westminster Gazette.

Members of the What-So-Ever club were delightfully entertained last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bell Johnson. It was a "comet party" and the entertainment was in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. Johnson maintained her reputation as a royal entertainer.

LISTEN FOR WEDDING BELLS.

The summer vacation is near at hand, and the school bell will cease to ring. It is said, however, that one, and possibly more, of Paw Paw's fair teachers will hear the merry tinkle, tinkle of bells—wedding bells—before the old school bell rings again next September.

SURPRISE ON BIRTHDAY.

About 25 of the friends and relatives of Mrs. Lewis Soule gave her a very pleasant birthday surprise at her home last Thursday. Many useful and pretty gifts were left, there was a bountiful supply of good things to eat and the day was thoroughly enjoyed.

To the Rescue

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Many a merchant is "at sea,"
Tossed by waves of uncertainty,
They drift along from year to year,
Always worrying, full of fear,
They're like a ship without a rudder,
To think of them makes us shudder.
Now, this may not apply to you,
But if it fits, put on the shoe.
The Great Whale Clothiers are not sailors,
But, bless your heart, they're tailors,
And we're on deck, yes, all the time,
Boosting business in near-by climes.
Then take a tip from us, who knows,
Just grab that line of Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes.

These are the same clothes you see advertised in the Saturday Evening Post.
